

Friday Study Guide 1/29/16 Test

1. Know vocabulary definitions for Subsistence Farming, Kasbah, Ethnic Group, Religious Group, Literacy, Unitary, Confederation, Federal, Autocratic, Oligarchic, Democratic, Parliamentary Democracy, Presidential Democracy
 2. In the Desert, where do people live, work, how do they travel?
 3. In the Sahel, where do people live, work, how do they travel?
 4. In the Savanna, where do people live, work, how do they travel?
 5. In the Tropical Rain Forest, where do people live, work, how do they travel?
 6. Muslim women don't have to wear the Hijab in this culture.
 7. They believe that plants, animals, and trees have souls.
 8. They have a relatively high standard of living.
 9. They follow two calendars.
 10. Approximately 400 African languages can trace their roots to this ancient culture.
 11. If you describe someone as a Christian, you are describing his:
 12. Which nation has the highest literacy rate?
 13. Which nation has the lowest literacy rate?
 14. Which nation probably has the lowest standard of living?
 15. A low literacy rate means that many people in that country cannot:
 16. Why do you think children often drop out of school in Africa?
 17. France is an example what type of government structure?
 18. Which government structure is a loose alliance?
 19. In which government structure do political units control their own law?
 20. In which government structure does central government divides the power?
 21. In which government structure does the central government has all the power?
 22. The United States is an example of which government structure?
- Read the statements by political leaders below. Write A if they head an autocratic government, B if they head an oligarchy, or C if they head a democracy.
23. "I am proud to serve as president of a country where everyone has equal rights."

24. "My wealth and position will keep me in power in this society."
 25. "I will imprison anyone who criticizes my government. I am in total control."
 26. "There is no reason to explain our position to the people. We are in control here."
 27. "Where can I register to vote for the presidential election?"
 28. autocracy
 - a. control rests with a small group
 - b. the people hold supreme power
 - c. one leader exercises control
 29. oligarchy
 - a. control rests with a small group
 - b. the people hold supreme power
 - c. one leader exercises control
 30. democracy
 - a. control rests with a small group
 - b. the people hold supreme power
 - c. one leader exercises control
- True or False
31. In a Parliamentary System: legislature controls power.
 32. In a Parliamentary System: separation of powers
 33. In a Parliamentary System: prime minister
 34. In a Parliamentary System: president
 35. In a Parliamentary System: leader answers to the people.
 36. In a Parliamentary System: leader answers to the legislature
 37. In a Parliamentary System: checks and balances
 38. In a Parliamentary System: elections held if leader forced to resign
 39. In a Parliamentary System: leader elected by the people
 40. In a Presidential System: legislature controls power.
 41. In a Presidential System: separation of powers
 42. In a Presidential System: prime minister
 43. In a Presidential System: president
 44. In a Presidential System: leader answers to the people.
 45. In a Presidential System: leader answers to the legislature
 46. In a Presidential System: checks and balances
 47. In a Presidential System: elections held if leader forced to resign
 48. In a Presidential System: leader elected by the people